FIRST CABIN, $50, ACROSS THE OCEAN

Cunard Line Cuts All Its Rates.

WHITE STAR TAKES UP FIGHT

pool in the fine, big twin screw flyers Campania and Lucania for $50. This is the minimum first-class rate, which was formerly $80. The minimum first-class eabin passage east aboard the Etruria and Umbria was $65 and $50. The mini-mum second cabin rate by the Campania and Lucania, formerly $47.50, is now $40, minimum on other ships of the line is $30.

ships of the line is $30.

Vernon H. Brown, agent of the Cunard Line, said yesterday that the order for reduction had come from the other side. The announcement of the cut caused a conference yesterday of the officials of the International Mercantile Marine Company, at the conclusion of which it was said that the White Star ships plying between New York and Liverpool wou ditake second cabin passengers at a minimum rate of from $7.50 to $12.50 below the former prices.

Second Cabin Rate.

minimum second cabin rate by th Majestic has been reduced from $47.50 to $40; by the Celtic, Cedric, Baltic, Teutonic, and Majestic, the reduction is from $45 to $35; by the Arabic and boats running from Boston to Liverpool, from $42.50 to $30.

Agent John Lee, of the White Star Agent John Lee, of the White Star-Line, said that there would be no re-duction of the eastbound first cabin rates just yet. There is little doubt that the Cunard will meet the White Star-cut by another. The rates for cabin pas-sage from Liverpool to New York re-mains the same. The eastbound traffic is becoming light now, while the west-bound fleets are thronged with return-ing torusts.

The cut is practically the adoption of the winter rates. The effect may be to cause many of limited means to take in an ocean trip and add to the revenue of the lines whose ships otherwise will sail east with fewer and fewer cabin passengers as the summer season wanes.
